ABSTRACT

The paper emphasizes the use of literature as a popular technique for teaching both basic language skills (i.e, reading, writing, listening and speaking) and language areas(i.e,vocabulary, grammar, pronunciation) is a challenging task. Selecting an appropriate text in a foreign language classroom to teach language components with literature is a herculean task. Various genres of literature in a given ESL classroom (poetry, prose, fiction, drama and novel)are to be cleverly incorporated to teach grammar with vigour and vitality .Outdated are the days to teach grammar with monotonous rules and regulations .The language learners need to have an environment of liveliness wherein he is at ease to learn and unlearn the concepts of grammar in a playful way. The present paper would be unleashing discourse markers from a given prose text .The paper would emphasize on what are discourse markers, their types, how to identify them and how they manage the flow and structure of the text through the short
