Under the chairmanship of the Principal Dr. K. Manohar, Vice Principal Dr. G. Usha Rani, A grand Freshers' Day programme was organized for the first-year degree students at Smt N.P Savithamma Government Women's Degree College, Chittoor. Presiding over the event, Principal Dr. K. Manohar expressed happiness and gratitude to the management of TASA Foods Pvt. Ltd., Chittoor, for donating computer printers to the college and providing college uniforms to 300 students. Vice Principal Dr. G. Usha Rani stated that Savithamma College has been steadily progressing and developing in all aspects. She advised students to maintain discipline, complete their degree successfully, and grow into responsible citizens. Mrs. B. Sridevi, Project Director, DRDA Chittoor, attended the programme as the chief guest. She emphasized that education not only imparts knowledge but also instils values. She encouraged students to move forward with a clear goal, recognize their inner talents, and achieve success accordingly. She advised them to apply the good qualities taught by teachers and parents, use their knowledge wisely, and lead a happy life without getting involved in unnecessary distractions.

Mr. Arshad Hussain, Managing Director of TASA Foods, stated that instead of only taking from society, one should think about what they can contribute back and put it into practice. Mr. Sameer Ahmed, Manager, TASA Foods, congratulated the first-year students and advised them to make the best use of all facilities available in the college to build a bright future.

On behalf of TASA Foods Pvt. Ltd., the Managing Director presented the computer, with printers, and 300 college uniforms to the principal. Later, students enthusiastically participated in various cultural programmes. The event was attended by Coordinator Shamsakthar, Dr. B. Thirukumaran, Dr. T. Vinila, Dr. M. Sandhya Rani, Dr. B. Ramadevi, Dr. Dharmamurthy, Dr. P. Sivaragini, Dr. M. Venkateswarlu, Mrs. Kumari, Mr. Shiva Shankar, Mr. Suresh, and other faculty members.

Celebrated national Indian constitution day NSS & political science both departments:

Under the chairmanship of the Principal Dr. K. Manohar, and vice Principal Dr. G. Usha Rani, The National Indian Constitution Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm at our college under the joint coordination of the NSS Unit and the Department of Political Science. The programme aimed to create awareness among students about the significance of the Constitution, its values, and the role it plays in establishing justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity in the nation.

The event began with a formal introduction on the importance of Constitution Day (26 November), commemorating the adoption of the Indian Constitution in 1949. Faculty members highlighted the contributions of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, the chief architect of the Constitution, and explained the fundamental rights, duties, directive principles, and democratic values enshrined in it.

Students and NSS volunteers actively participated in reading the Preamble of the Constitution, reaffirming their commitment to uphold constitutional values. A short lecture was delivered by faculty from the Department of Political Science on constitutional morality, democratic participation, and the responsibilities of citizens in a diverse nation.

As part of the celebration, students engaged in discussions, poster presentations, and awareness activities, reflecting on the importance of safeguarding unity and integrity of the country. The NSS Programme Officer motivated students to practice the ideals of citizenship in their daily lives.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks, acknowledging the efforts of NSS volunteers, Political Science faculty members, and all participants for making the programme successful and meaningful.
